

New Packaging Highlights Sayan™ Chaga's National Debut

Los Angeles, Calif. – May 15, 2009 – Sayan Health's recent overhaul of its Chaga packaging has served as the impetus for national availability of the super antioxidant health drink. This nationwide distribution means that East Coasters, Midwesterners and Southerners will soon enjoy the same powerful antioxidant benefits those individuals on the West Coast have been reaping from drinking the beverage. Health-conscious beverage drinkers can learn more about the all-natural appearance and formulation that has landed Sayan™ Chaga in the nation's spotlight online at <http://www.sayanhealth.com>.
